

Market-Linked Products Underlier

Russell 2000[®] Value Index

Market-Linked Products, considered complex investments, may be linked to the performance of an underlying asset, such as the Russell 2000[®] Value Index (“Index”). Dividends paid on the underlier are not passed through to the Market-Linked Product. If held to maturity, any potential coupon payments or gains will be paid out based on the performance of the Index, as detailed in the offering documents. Additionally, your statement value will reflect any upward or downward movements in the volatility of the Index.
