GS Momentum Builder® Multi-Asset 5S ER Index

The GS Momentum Builder® Multi-Asset 5S ER Index (the index) measures the extent to which the performance of the exchange-traded funds and a money market position (together with the ETFs, the underlying assets) included in the index outperform the sum of the return on the notional interest rate plus 0.65% per annum (accruing daily). The notional interest rate is the Secured Overnight Financing Rate (SOFR) plus 0.26161%. The money market position reflects the notional returns accruing to a hypothetical investor from an investment in a money market account denominated in U.S. dollars that accrues interest at the notional interest rate. The index rebalances on each index business day from among 15 underlying assets that have been categorized in the following asset classes: broad-based equities; fixed income; emerging markets; alternatives; commodities; inflation; and cash equivalent. The index attempts to track the positive price momentum in the underlying assets, subject to limitations on volatility and a minimum and maximum weight for each underlying asset and each asset class, each as described below.

Prior to February 4, 2022, the index measured the extent to which the performance of the selected underlying assets outperformed the sum of the return on 3-month USD LIBOR plus 0.65% per annum (accruing daily). Further, prior to such date, the money market position reflected notional returns accruing to a hypothetical investor from an investment in a money market account denominated in U.S. dollars that accrued interest at 3-month USD LIBOR, which return was always less than the sum of the return on 3-month USD LIBOR plus 0.65% per annum (accruing daily). As a result, extremely limited historical information regarding the performance of the index subsequent to its discontinued use of 3-month USD LIBOR is available, which may make it difficult for you to make an informed decision with respect to an investment in the notes.

Features of the index include:

- daily rebalancing from among the 15 eligible underlying assets on each index business day (in this context, a base index rebalancing day) by calculating, for each day in the weight averaging period related to that base index rebalancing day, the combination of underlying assets that would have provided the highest historical return during three return look-back periods (nine months, six months and three months), subject to:
 - a limit of 5% on the degree of variation in the daily closing prices or closing level, as applicable, of the aggregate of such underlying assets over the related realized volatility look-back periods (the prior six months, three months and one month for the nine-month, six-month and three-month return look-back periods, respectively); and
 - a minimum and maximum weight for each underlying asset and each asset class; and
- the potential for daily total return index rebalancing into the money market position, based on whether the realized volatility of the underlying assets comprising the index exceeds the volatility cap of 6% for the applicable volatility cap period (the prior one month).

Historical Information*

The following chart and table provide a comparison between the index and certain classes of assets (in each case, represented by a benchmark ETF or a benchmark index, which are distinct from the asset classes in which the 15 underlying assets have been categorized for purposes of this index) from January 1, 2017 to July 12, 2022.

* Index data reflects the index's use of 3-month USD LIBOR prior to February 4, 2022. The index discontinued use of 3-month USD LIBOR for all purposes on February 4, 2022 and replaced such rate with SOFR plus 0.26161%. Therefore, extremely limited information regarding the performance of the index subsequent to its discontinued use of 3-month USD LIBOR is available, which may make it difficult for you to make an informed decision with respect to an investment in the notes.

Selected Risk Factors

An investment in securities linked to the index is subject to the risks described below as well as the risks and considerations described in the accompanying MOBU 5S ER index supplement no. 43, the applicable pricing supplement, the applicable product supplement, if any, the accompanying prospectus supplement and the accompanying prospectus. The following risk factors are discussed in greater detail in the applicable pricing supplement and the accompanying MOBU 5S ER index supplement no. 43.

Risks Related to the Index

- The Index Measures the Performance of the Index Underlying Assets Less the Sum of the Return on the Notional Interest Rate Plus 0.65% Per Annum (Accruing Daily)
- Your Investment in the Securities May Be Subject to Concentration Risks. The assets underlying an eligible underlying asset may represent a particular market or commodity sector, a particular geographic region or some other sector or asset class. As a result, your investment in the securities may be concentrated in a single sector or asset class even though there are maximum weights for each underlying asset and each asset class
- You May Not Have Exposure to One or More of the Eligible Underlying Assets During the Term of the Securities
- The Weight of Each Index Underlying Asset Reflects the Average of the Average of the Weights of Such Index Underlying Asset Over Three Potential Portfolios For Each Day in the Applicable Weight Averaging Period
- The Index May Not Successfully Capture Price Momentum and May Not Achieve its Target Volatility
- Asset Class Maximum Weights Will in Many Cases Prevent All of the Eligible Underlying Assets in an Asset Class From Being Included in the Index at Their Underlying Asset Maximum Weights and May Also Prevent the Index From Having Exposure to Certain Types of Assets At Any Given Time
- Each Index Underlying Asset's Weight Is Limited by Its Underlying Asset Maximum Weight, Its Asset Class Maximum Weight and the Volatility Constraint
- If the Level of the Index Changes, the Market Value of Your Securities May Not Change in the Same Manner
- Past Index Performance is No Guide to Future Performance
- The Lower Performance of One Index Underlying Asset May Offset an Increase in the Other Index Underlying Assets
- Because Historical Returns and Realized Volatility Are Measured on an Aggregate Basis, Index Underlying Assets Could Include Eligible Underlying Assets With a High Realized Volatility and Could Exclude Eligible Underlying Assets With a High Historical Return
- The Index Calculation Agent Will Have Authority to Make Determinations that Could Affect the Value of Your Securities and the Amount You Receive at Maturity. The Goldman Sachs Group, Inc. Owns a Non-Controlling Interest in the Index Calculation Agent
- As Index Sponsor, GS&Co. Can Replace the Index Calculation Agent at Any Time
- The Index Calculation Agent Can Resign Upon Notification to the Index Sponsor
- The Index Weightings May Be Ratably Rebalanced into the Money Market Position on Any or All Days During the Term of the Securities
- The Index May Perform Poorly During Periods Characterized by Increased Short-Term Volatility
- Index Market Disruption Events Could Affect the Level of the Index on Any Date
- On February 4, 2022, the Index Discontinued Use of 3-Month USD LIBOR For All Purposes and Replaced Such Rate
- Certain Risks Related to SOFR
- The Historical Levels of the Notional Interest Rate Are Not an Indication of the Future Levels of the Notional Interest Rate

Risks Related to the Eligible ETFs

Risks Related to All of the Eligible ETFs

- The Eligible ETFs Are Passively Managed To Track an Index and May Not Perform as Well as an Actively Managed Fund or Another Investment
- Except to the Extent That The Goldman Sachs Group, Inc. is the Issuer of Equity, Debt Securities or Preferred Stock in an Underlying Index, There is No Affiliation Between Us and Any Issuer of Assets Held by Any Eligible ETF or Any Sponsor of Any Eligible ETF
- The Policies of the Eligible ETF Sponsors and/or Investment Advisor, and the Policies of Any Sponsor of an Underlying Index Tracked by an Eligible ETF, Could Affect the Level of the Index
- There is No Assurance That an Active Trading Market Will Continue for the Eligible ETFs or That There Will Be Liquidity in Any Such Trading Market; Further, Each Eligible ETF is Subject to Management Risks, Securities Lending Risks and Custody Risks

- Correlation of Performances Among the Index Underlying Assets May Reduce the Performance of the Index
- The Policies of the Index Sponsor, Index Committee and Index Calculation Agent, and Changes That Affect the Index or the Eligible ETFs, Could Affect the Amount Payable on Your Securities and Their Market Value

July 2022 MOBU 5S ER Index Supplement Addendum

Dated July 26, 2022

- The Eligible ETFs May Be Subject to Pricing Dislocations and Other Market Forces, Which May Adversely Affect the Level of the Index
- The Values of the Eligible ETFs May Not Completely Track the Level of the Indices Underlying Such Eligible ETFs
- The Eligible ETFs May Be Subject to Global or Regional Financial Risks, Which May Adversely Affect the Level of the Index
- Your Investment is Subject to Investment-Grade Credit Risk

Risks Related to Eligible ETFs Holding Foreign Assets (including the iShares® MSCI EAFE ETF, the iShares® MSCI Japan ETF, the iShares® iBoxx $ High Yield Corporate Bond ETF, the iShares® iBoxx $ Investment Grade Corporate Bond ETF, the iShares® Emerging Markets ETF and the iShares® Preferred and Income Securities ETF)

- Your Securities Will Be Subject to Foreign Currency Exchange Rate Risk
- Regulators Are Investigating Potential Manipulation of Published Currency Exchange Rates
- Even Though Currencies Trade Around-The-Clock, Your Securities Will Not
- Intervention in the Foreign Currency Exchange Markets by the Countries Issuing Any Currency In Which an Asset Held by an Eligible ETF Trades or Is Denominated Could Adversely Affect the Level of the Index
- Suspensions or Disruptions of Market Trading in One or More Foreign Currencies May Adversely Affect the Value of Your Securities
- Your Investment in the Securities Will Be Subject to Risks Associated with Foreign Securities Markets
- Government Regulatory Action, Including Legislative Acts and Executive Orders, Could Result in Material Changes to the Composition of an Eligible ETF with Assets from One or More Foreign Securities Markets and Could Negatively Affect the Level of the Index

Risks Related to Eligible ETFs Holding U.S. Government Debt Securities

- Your Investment is Subject to Concentration Risks. Certain of the eligible ETFs invest in U.S. Treasury bonds that are all obligations of the United States, including the iShares® 20+ Year Treasury Bond ETF, the iShares® 7-10 Year Treasury Bond ETF and the iShares® TIPS Bond ETF. In addition, the iShares® 20+ Year Treasury Bond ETF invests in securities with a similar remaining time to maturity. As a result, these eligible ETFs are concentrated in the performance of bonds issued by a single issuer and having the same general tenor and terms
- ETFs Holding U.S. Government Bonds May Change in Unexpected Ways

Risks Related to Eligible ETFs Holding Debt Securities

- Your Investment is Subject to Income Risk and Interest

Risks Related to the iShares® Biotechnology ETF

- The iShares® Biotechnology ETF Recently Changed Its Underlying Index and Has Limited Historical Information Tracking Its Underlying Index

Risks Related to the iShares® Preferred and Income Securities ETF

- The iShares® Preferred and Income Securities ETF currently holds primarily preferred stock. Unlike interest payments on debt securities, dividend payments on a preferred stock typically must be declared by the issuer's board of directors. An issuer's board of directors is generally not under any obligation to pay a dividend (even if such dividends have accrued) and may suspend payment of dividends on a preferred stock at any time. In the event an issuer of preferred stock experiences economic difficulties, the issuer's preferred stock may lose substantial value due to the reduced likelihood that the issuer's board of directors will declare a dividend and the fact that the preferred stock may be subordinated to other securities of the same issuer. Certain additional risks associated with preferred stock could adversely affect the value of the iShares® Preferred and Income Securities ETF.
- The iShares® Preferred and Income Securities ETF Has Limited Historical Information Tracking Its Underlying Index

Risks Related to the iShares® TIPS Bond ETF

- The iShares® TIPS Bond ETF includes inflation-protected bonds, which typically have lower yields than conventional fixed rate bonds because of their inflation adjustment feature

Risks Related to the iShares® iBOXX $ High Yield Corporate Bond ETF

- The iShares® iBoxx $ High Yield Corporate Bond ETF holds generally U.S. dollar-denominated liquid high yield corporate bonds, sometimes referred to as "junk" bonds. High yield bonds, compared to higher-rated securities of similar maturities, tend to have more volatile prices and increased price sensitivity to changing interest rates and to adverse economic and business developments, greater risk of loss due to default or declining credit quality, greater likelihood that adverse economic or company specific events will make the issuer of such bonds unable to make interest and/or principal payments, and greater susceptibility to negative market sentiments leading to depressed prices and decrease in liquidity

Risks Related to the iShares® U.S. Real Estate ETF

Rate Risk

- The iShares® U.S. Real Estate ETF invests in shares of companies that directly or indirectly invest in real estate. The performance of the real estate industry is affected by multiple factors, including general economic and political conditions, the availability of financing for real estate, governmental actions that affect real estate, liquidity in the real estate market and interest rates

- The iShares® U.S. Real Estate ETF Recently Changed the Index It Tracks

Risks related to SPDR® S&P® Oil & Gas Exploration & Production ETF

- The SPDR® S&P® Oil & Gas Exploration & Production ETF is Concentrated in Oil & Gas Companies and Does Not Provide Diversified Exposure

Risks related to SPDR® Gold Trust

- Termination or Liquidation of the SPDR® Gold Trust Could Adversely Affect the Value of the Index
- Your Investment is Subject to Concentration Risks. The SPDR® Gold Trust is concentrated in a single commodity. As a result, the performance of the SPDR® Gold Trust will be concentrated in the performance of that specific commodity
- Fees and Expenses Payable by the SPDR® Gold Trust Are Charged Regardless of Profitability and May Result in a Depletion of its Assets

- Legal and Regulatory Changes Could Adversely Affect the Level of the Index

- Ongoing Commodities-Related Regulatory Investigations And Private Litigation Could Affect Prices for Commodities, Which Could Adversely Affect Your Securities

- Potential Discrepancies, or Future Changes, in the Calculation of the LBMA Gold Price PM Could Have an Adverse Effect on the Value of the SPDR® Gold Trust Shares

- The Value of the Shares of SPDR® Gold Trust Relates Directly to the Value of the Gold Held by SPDR® Gold Trust and Fluctuations in the Price of Gold Could Materially Adversely Affect an Investment in SPDR® Gold Trust's Shares

- The Amount of Gold Represented by the Shares of SPDR® Gold Trust Will Continue to Be Reduced During the Life of SPDR® Gold Trust Due to SPDR® Gold Trust's Expenses
